PTA President Update

We still need a volunteer to be the PTA President. If the PTA does not have a new President by November 12, all PTA funding will STOP for -

- STEAM Day
- Cultural Arts assemblies
- In-house field trips
- 5th Grade End of Year activities

Please consider stepping up for the remainder of the school year (7 months). Please contact president.thespta@gmail.com

CALENDAR

- Oct 24 Halloween Disco Volunteer meeting (Media Center, 6:30 pm)
- Oct 26 Halloween Disco
- Nov 12 PTA meeting

Current PTA Openings

President

This position is a REQUIRED position for the PTA. The President convenes monthly PTA meetings, attends mandatory PTA trainings (financial, HCFD crowd control training, etc.), serves as a member of all committees, provides logistical support for PTA use of facilities, provides guidance to committees as it pertains to PTA bylaws/rules, works in conjunction with PTA Treasurer on most financial matters, provides content and reviews all weekly PTA newsletters, communicates with THES Administration and staff on PTA updates/information, and other duties as needed. This position requires a moderate to high level of work. This is a year long, Board-level position requiring a vote by PTA General Membership.

1st Vice President

This position provides as needed support to the PTA President. Some duties will include social media updates, website content management, drafting meeting agendas, and other forms of e-communication. This is a year long, Board level position requiring a nomination/confirmation by the existing Board.
